The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 18-23 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Enomoto et al (US 2003/0032284 A1), in combination with the following comments.

Enomoto et al discloses a process for forming a gate electrode 7 having a tungsten silicide layer 13 on a semiconductor substrate 1 (Figure 3, and Paragraphs 0069 and 0072), a process of decreasing grain boundaries on a surface of the tungsten silicide layer at least a portion of which is exposed by performing a heat treatment in an atmosphere including ammonia after a reduced pressure process (Figure 8, and Paragraphs 0072, 0073, 0093, 0098, and 0134), and forming an oxide spacer 13/15 on a side wall of the gate electrode (Figures 3-4, and Paragraphs 0003, and 0071).

Enomoto et al discloses performing a heat treatment in an oxidizable gas on the metallic silicide layer (Paragraph 0073). Enomoto et al discloses the claimed invention except for including ammonia in a range of 1% to 3%, performing said heat treatment in an oxidizable atmosphere of less than 100 ppm, and performing said heat treatment at a temperature of 700 °C to 800 °C for a time of 30 sec to 40 sec at a pressure of 13 to 65 Pa. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to determine a suitable amount of the oxidizable atmosphere, and a suitable time, temperature and pressure, since it has been held that where the general conditions of a claim are disclosed in the prior art, discovering the optimum or workable ranges involves only routine skill in the art. In re Aller, 105 USPQ 233.

In addition, the selection of a suitable ammonia range, a suitable amount of the oxidizable atmosphere, and a suitable time, temperature and pressure, is obvious because it is a matter of determining optimum process conditions by routine experimentation with a limited number of species of result effective variables. These claims are prima facie obvious without showing that the claimed ranges achieve unexpected results relative to the prior art range. In re Woodruff, 16 USPQ2d 1935, 1937 (Fed. Cir. 1990). See also In re Huang, 40 USPQ2d 1685, 1688 (Fed. Cir. 1996)(claimed ranges or a result effective variable, which do not overlap the prior art ranges, are unpatentable unless they produce a new and unexpected result which is different in kind and not merely in degree from the results of the prior art). See also In re Boesch, 205 USPQ 215 (CCPA) (discovery of optimum value of result effective variable in known process is ordinarily within skill or art) and In re Aller, 105 USPQ 233 (CCPA 1995) (selection of optimum ranges within prior art general conditions is obvious).

Note that the specification contains no disclosure of either the critical nature of the claimed range, amount, time, temperature and pressure, or any unexpected results arising therefrom. Where patentability is said to be based upon particular chosen ranges, amounts, times, temperatures and pressures, or upon another variable recited in a claim, the Applicant must show that the chosen ranges, amounts, times, temperatures, and pressures, are critical. In re Woodruff, 919 F.2d 1575, 1578, 16 USPQ2d 1934, 1936 (Fed. Cir. 1990).

Claims 14-16, and 24-35, are allowed.
